NOVEMBER.....A TIME FOR REFLECTION AND REMEMBERING

You can see from our Newsletter this week that we will, please God, be having many Masses in November for our Holy Souls. Our faith reminds us, "Lord for your faithful departed life has changed not ended". May our Holy Souls be blessed in the final stage of their journey into the Lord's Kingdom. Let's hope that we will have time to come and pray for all our Holy Souls especially for the Souls who have no living relatives to pray for them. Lord bless our remembering.

THE SAINTS, OUR DECEASED AND US

"She has her mother's eyes". "He is the spitting image of his father". From birth until death, we talk endlessly about family resemblances. We carry within us the traits of our ancestors. There are other characteristics, we'll say: "He has the patience of Job". "I wish I had my grandmother's faith". "She's a saint for doing that". "He's a prayerful person". These qualities and traits come from our spiritual ancestors, our deceased and Saints. They share with us the common bond of God's image. We also share the common bond of our Baptism. In our Christian Catholic tradition we believe that on the day of our Baptism the very life of God came to dwell within us, not just for one or ten or one hundred years, but forever. We also believe that at that very moment we became members of God's family. So, in Baptism, like the first creation, we are linked together; living and dead. Our Baptism calls us to model our lives on the life and message of Jesus as He left in all the Gospels. Each of us too leaves a story for others to tell. We look back for inspiration to the stories of the Saints and Apostles from the early Church. This coming week as we celebrate the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls, we might ask ourselves what we will leave behind? What will people remember of our lives? How will we mirror the very life, image and likeness of God that we see reflected in our deceased relative and Saints of the Church?

Sunday 30th October, 2016.

JESUS SEEKS OUT EVERYONE

A little girl heard her Parish Priest read from Luke's Gospel the words spoken concerning Jesus by the religious Pharisees: "This man receives sinners and eats with them". She pricked up her ears and after the service was over she went up to the Priest and said "I didn't know my name was in the Bible!" The Priest said, "Why Edith, I don't believe it is!" "Oh, yes, you read it this morning, the part that said Jesus receives sinners and Edith with them". Are we convinced that we are important in God's eyes? Does this conviction change the way we live?

KEEP YOUR FORK!

An elderly Parishioner asked her Parish Priest to call to her. She was one of the oldest Parishioners in the Parish and a woman rich in faith. In fact she oozed faith, hope and love wherever she went. As her P.P. sat facing her, she shared the news that her Doctor had discovered an inoperable tumour. "I have about six months", she confirmed. "Fr., the Lord has been so good to me. I have lived a long life. I am ready to go. So Fr., I want to talk to you about my funeral". They talked quietly about her favourite hymns and the scripture readings that meant so much to her. Then her eyes twinkling, she looked at her P.P. and said "one more thing Fr., when I am laid out in the coffin, I want the beads in one hand and a fork in the other". "A fork", exclaimed the P.P. in a sense of shock. The P.P thought he had heard everything, but this surprised him. "Why do you want to be buried with a fork?" asked the P.P. "Well Fr.", she said, "It's like this, I've always enjoyed socials and other occasions and I always knew when there was a fork as well as a spoon for dessert it wasn't going to be jelly and ice-cream, but a real pudding- apple pie or chocolate cake, good stuff. When I saw the fork, I knew the best was yet to come! That's exactly what I want people to talk about at my funeral. Oh, they can talk about all the good times we had together, that would be nice, but when they walk by my coffin, I want them to turn to one another and say "Why the fork?". Then I want you to tell this entire story. I'll have my fork because the best is yet to come".

YOU TOO? Most of would rather be ruined by praise rather than be saved by criticism!
